CHICAGO, IL (JUNE 1) --- George Johnson, senior firstbaseman for the 1982 champion Elmhurst College Bluejays, has been selected this year's recipient of the "Jack Horenberger Most Outstanding Player Award," given annually to the best baseball player in the College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin. Johnson, the only unanimous selection on this year's honor squad, received first team all-conference honors for the fourth time. Only Johnson and former Bluejay pitcher Tom Ludwis (1975-78) have earned that honor. Honored along with Johnson was Bluejay coach Charlie Goehl who, in his rookie season, guided Elmhurst to the league championship with a 13 and 3 record.
