ROCK ISLAND, Ill. --- Wheaton's Crusaders completed another successful season in the College Conference of Illinois with their seventh league title in a row; four team statistical championships and two individual statistical leaders.

The champion Crusaders bowed out of the loop with a 33-13 win over Augustana in Wheaton and enjoyed a game and one-half lead over second-place Illinois Wesleyan at the season's close.

Wesleyan grabbed the No. 2 position in the league despite a 26-13 loss to Carroll in its final CCI game of the year. The Titans, the only CCI member which has not concluded its schedule, plays ancient-rival Illinois Normal Saturday.
