Chicago, IL (Oct. 31) -- Wheaton College won the inaugural CCIW soccer tournament with a 1-0 victory over Augustana that put an exciting exclamation point on the league's first soccer championship. Joel Kapitanuik scored the only goal of the match 65:39 into the contest and goalie Darin Schanker turned back all four Viking shots on goal.

The season ending championship tournament went according to the regular season standings. In the quarterfinals #3 North Park beat #6 Illinois Wesleyan 2-1 and #4 North Central blanked #5 Millikin 3-0. Both semi-final games went into overtime. Tied at 1-1 after regulation and through two five minute overtime periods, Augustana finally bested North Park 4-3 in a shootout. Tied 3-3 after regulation, Wheaton scored two unanswered goals in overtime to turn back North Central 5-3.
