Mount Prospect, IL (Feb. 27) -- North Park College senior center Jack Ecker has been selected the final CCIW 'Player of the Week' in men's basketball for the 1995 season as he ended his home career in a big, big way, setting a new school record with a 54-point outburst in a 127 to 106 shootout over Carthage. Ecker missed his first two shots and his last shot, but made 16 of 22 for the game, 8 of 10 from three-point range and hit 14 of 14 free throws. He scored 27 in each half. He also had 13 rebounds in the game. The 54 point effort is the third-highest point total in CCIW history and the 7th time any player has scored over 50 points in a CCIW game. Ecker had 14 points in a 71-53 loss to Illinois Wesleyan and 23 points in a 95-86 loss at North Central, but his 91 points for the week enabled him to finish as CCIW scoring leader for the season with 289 points.
